Sorry, took some time to track anything down. I don't think OW is ready to circulate this, yet.

Cathy:

I saw the attached materials go to Benita, but I don't know anything beyond that. I am working from home today, and it seems the call has already started, so I think this is the best I can do.

Do you know anything about a call at 2pm for states and tribes on the Gold King Mine Watershed Assessment? I'm just trying to get background for my colleague who will be on the call with OSWER.
